

IBM InfoSphere Guardium

Comprehensive data security platform that provides a full range of capabilities such as discovery and classification of sensitive data, vulnerability assessment, data and file activity monitoring, masking, encryption, blocking, alerting and quarantining to protect sensitive data

Database and privileged users monitoring with the ability to detect unauthorized actions and detailed reporting

Strengthening security policies in order to protect from attacks and the control policy with the possibility of data masking

Identification of all confidential data and classification of these data sources with detailed compliance reporting

Database vulnerability assessment and compliance testing according to professional standards (PCI, SOX, BASEL II)

